This terms Collective Worship theme is: Justice

Small School, Big Heart

Goodbye to Mrs Hardaker

After 10 years at Selattyn School, Mrs Hardaker is retiring today. She will be greatly missed by all at the School. We had a lovely assembly on Tuesday to say goodbye with songs and poems and gifts from the children & staff. We wish her a fond farewell and all the best for her retirement and the new adventures that await.

Welcome to Mrs Abercrombie

Mrs Abercrombie will be rejoining Selattyn School when we return after Easter, when she will be taking over from Mrs Hardaker as teacher of Class 2. Class 2 pupils will continue to be supported by our Teaching assistants Miss Astles and Mrs Davies.

Bryntysilio

Our year 4, 5 & 6 children have had a fantastic time at Bryntysilio this week. See photos from their adventures on ClassDojo.

After-school Clubs

After-school clubs for the 1st half of Summer term are now available on ParentPay to book in. Please ensure you rebook in prior to the start of term. In order to offer a healthy option to pupils, all children attending morning club will be offered fruit and milk. Children in after-school clubs will be offered a piece of fruit at the start of club.

School Shoes

Please remember, all children should be wearing sensible plain back sensible black shoes / trainers for school and not coloured / pattern shoes and trainers.

Quiddich Day

Reminder we have our Quiddich day on Wednesday 14th April. All children will be taking part. Please can all children come to school in PE kit with long leggings or tracksuit trousers, a warm jumper and trainers. To make the day even more exciting we encourage children to wear capes and bring their wands.
