Dear Parents & Carers,

Cressida Cowell Author at Holroyd Theatre

Further to the letter sent out last week detailing the two trips Class 3 and 4 pupils will be taking part in this half term, I am writing to confirm further details regarding the first trip to meet Cressida Cowell.

Class 3 and 4 pupils will be visiting the Holroyd Theatre, at Moreton Hall on Friday 22nd September to listen to award winning author and former Children's Laureate, Cressida Cowell as part of a multi-school event hosted by Booka bookshop.

Children will have school lunch as normal.

Children will leave school at 12:45 and will travel to the theatre by Lakeside coach. They will return to school ready for normal school pick up at 3:30.

Children should wear normal school uniform.

We would prefer all families to pay their contributions for the trip and complete their consent form using the new ParentPay system: www.parentpay.com . All children were sent login details on Friday. If you need another copy, or any support in setting up and using ParentPay please contact the school office.

However, if you do not want to use ParentPay at this time and wish to pay by cash, please send it in a labelled envelope and complete this online form to consent to your child attending the trip.

Initial payment of £7.50 should be made by 15th September.

Booka Bookshops are offering signed copies of Cressida Cowell's latest book and the first one in this series. You can order copies by completing this order form (Paper copies are available from the office):

Click on the links in the form to order direct from Booka Bookshops. As detailed on the Booka form please include your child's name, class and school name in the notes section and select deliver to store to ensure you are not charged for delivery.

Further information regarding our visit to Bangor Races for our numeracy day will follow shortly.

Yours sincerely

Mr R.E. Shepherd
